CHAMPS

RIEL

The fall drama production of John Coulter's Riel was timely parallel to Canada's own quest for a new Constitution.

This play followed the radical career of Louis Riel, the leader of two revolts in the NorthWest and was realized through the efforts of Fr. R. McKinnon, Dr. M. Higgins, and Mr. M. Story.

A new group of actors was introduced to Saint Michael's with this work, and they performed quite well in their various roles.

McDavid, P. Margie, N. Catterall, M. Snell, C. Abrecht, D. Gani, D. Turcotte. (Third Row): Mr. M. Regimbal, H. Linden, D. Clarke, K. Stevens, C. Callaghan, P. McLeod, K. Vopni, P. Wong, P. Molony, F. Gullan, J. Gibbs, W. Hirst.

This year the Buzzers had a hard struggle in their playoff series. They defeated Weston 3-0, North York 3-1, Henry Carr 4-1, Oshawa 4-2, and Oakville 4-2. Tied for first place in the league, they faced Sarnia and eventually defeated them 4-3, to capture the Ontario Championship. The Ontario Champs also travelled to Holland where they had a successful hockey venture as well as a good time. Michael Harvey, with 22 goals and 38 assists in 34 games, was voted the most valuable player. Points were not the only factors in his favour. Michael's drive, determination, will to win and ability to be at his best during crucial games, made him irreplacable.

JUNIOR HOCKEY

The Junior team won all five of its games in the Francis Libermann Tournament. They defeated Henry Carr in two of their five games. But, because of a point system for periods won, and because of two divisions, St. Mike's won only two bronze medals. D'arcy Corcoran with 17 goals, 16 assists for 33 points, was voted the most valuable player.

SENIOR ACTION

SENIORS: J. McMillan, W. Corradi, F. Trentadue, S. Buza, P. Brooks, M. Loconte, N. Beaulieu, A. Beaulieu, A. Barozzino, J. Grant, C. Flora, C. Mandala, J. Purvis, M. Poon, M. Ghonna, D. Ghonna, C. Kelly, J. Carpe, S. Hattey, I. Morrison, D. Phillips, B. Kielty, A. Bach. Coaches: Mr. G. Marlborough, Mr. P. Forbes.

This year the Senior hockey team beat out second place and highly favoured Don Bosco. The team was awarded a position in the finals when it was discovered that Henry Carr had used an ineligible player in the semifinals. However, they lost out to Upper Canada College in two games in the T.D.C.A.A. finals. Mike Ghonna, a second year man who both scored goals and played tough hockey, was voted the most valuable player.

Placed in a tough division, the Bantams battled fiercely to drop only two games in regular season play. Good pressing defence and a lot of hustle made their final victory an easy one over Chaminade to capture the Bantam T.D.C.A.A. championship. The Bantams were also semifinalists at the George Harvey Tourney and were consolation champions at the St. Roberts Invitational Tournament. Willie Capano was voted the most valuable player due to his natural basketball talent. Looked upon as a leader, Willie hustled, rebounded well and played good defence.

This year our T.D.C.A.A Champions captured three tournaments: the Listourel High School Invitational, the Chaminade High School Invitational, and the Seneca College High School Invitational Tournament. The Blue Raiders were ranked fifth in Metro but went on to capture third place at the Metro Toronto Regional Tournament. Kirt Charter was named the most valuable player and was named to the Toronto Star, Sun, and T.D.C.A.A. All-Star Teams. Kirt was the leading point scorer on the team and finished with 1570 career points.

They defeated defending Ontario Champions Malvern Collegiate soundly at the Boylen Invitational, and were the only team to defeat eventual Ontario Champions Waterloo-Oxford at O.F.S.A.A., where they finished fifth out of 19 teams. Led by the four starting seniors on the team: Scott Murphy, Tony Reitmeier, John Andrenacci, and Kirt Charter, who exhibited excellent sportsmanship on and off the court, this team helped to establish the sport in the school and gave the T.D.C.A.A. well-deserved credibility provincially.

BANTAM SOCCER

This year our Bantam soccer team was one of the best St. Mike's has had in a long time. They advanced to the T.D.C.A.A. semifinals, but were beaten out by Neil McNeil. Credit should be given to the trainer, Tom Petric, for his enthusiasm, hard work and perseverance. The most valuable player was Tony Dirienzo, who exhibited great soccer sense. He was able to overcome defenders through speed and cunning. The coach was Mr. T. Leo.

SENIOR SOCCER

GUYS AND DOLLS

"I GOT THE HORSE RIGHT HERE . . ."

Broadway and 42nd Street, the glare of neon lights . . . the pulsating life of New York City . . . Place into this milieu the hustlers and gamblers out to make an easy buck, add a rousing musical score, and you have the hit musical "Guys and Dolls."

While this presentation by the St. Michael's College School Drama Society was no doubt the highlight of the spring season, its also represented a graduation of sorts for the principal actors. David Kanary, Jack Golabek, Sally Heit and Mary Ellen Sullivan had all worked under the tutelage of the director, Fr. McKinnon, for the past few years on various plays. These productions ranged from the pomp and pageantry of "The King and I," to the life and career of radical firebrand Louis Riel.

This play featured the merry mix-ups of high-roller Sky Masterson in romantic pursuit of the upright missionary Sarah Brown. Meanwhile, the frazzled gambler, Nathan Detroit, tried to arrange a crap game on one hand and fend off his fiancé of fourteen years, Adelaide, on the other. Once again the music rested in the hands of Mr. Guerriere, conducting an orchestra composed of students and a few alumni.

Fr. McKinnon was ably assisted by Mr. Thompson and Mr. Story of St. Michael's, and Sr. Edna Martin of Loretto Abbey. One group that was often overlooked was the stage crew, a collection of teenaged artisans and craftsmen who spent long hours working to ensure the technical success of the play.

"You are the light of the world. A city built on a hilltop cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lampstand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give praise to your Father in heaven."
